NOTICE TO PARENT OR GUARDIAN OF RELIGIOUS PERMEATION

The Alberta Human Rights Act requires a school board to give notice to a parent or guardian when courses of study, educational programs, institutional materials, instruction or exercises include subject matter that deals primarily and explicitly with religion.

All of the schools in this District are Catholic Separate Schools, the essential purpose of which is to fully permeate Catholic theology, philosophy, practices and beliefs, the principles of the Gospel and teachings of the Catholic Church, in all aspects of school life, including in the curriculum of every day subjects taught, both in and outside of formal religion classes, celebrations and exercises.

Every course of study and educational program, all institutional materials, instruction and exercises will at all times include subject matter that deals primarily and explicitly with religion.

East Central Alberta Catholic Schools Information Technology Acceptable Use Agreement

Preamble: Use of computers, school networks, and access to the Internet are a privilege provided by the school division for enhancement of education and fostering personal growth. If a user does not comply with his/her responsibilities and obligations, use of computing resources may be suspended and additional measures may be enacted by school/division administration. Illegal use of computing resources may be reported to legal authorities.

A user's responsibilities and obligations are outlined below:

1. With the exception of complying with law enforcement officers, users should not authorize anyone to use a school computing resource using their user name and password for any reason. Users are responsible for all use of their accounts.
2. Users must choose secure passwords and keep them private. If it is suspected that a password is no longer secret or secure, a user should immediately choose a new password. The Tech Department may ask that a user's password be changed if it is found to be insecure or known by anyone other than the user.
3. Users are responsible for their computing resource use. Although the division may have policies and systems in place to prevent inappropriate use, it is not responsible for the choices of the users of those resources.
4. Misuse of computing and network resources includes, but is not limited to:
 - a. any illegal activity
 - b. consumption, production, or distribution of pornography or hate literature
 - c. making or propagating threatening or defamatory statements
 - d. cheating on school assignments or exams
 - e. unauthorized access or modification to another user's data
 - f. willful damage to computer and network hardware or software
 - g. engaging in leisure activities when it is not appropriate to do so
 - h. use for profit or commercial purposes
 - i. intentionally consuming information technology resources in such a way as to negatively impact the use of those resources by others
 - j. unauthorized attempts to install software on computing systems
 - k. unauthorized attempts to circumvent the security/monitoring systems
5. Inappropriate use of personal computing devices on school/division property, such as student or staff-owned computers and cell-phones, will be treated similarly to inappropriate use of school/division owned computing devices.
6. If a user witnesses inappropriate use of computing resources they are obligated to report it to school/division administration.

East Central Alberta Catholic Schools Privacy and Monitoring Agreement

Preamble: This document is a description of what computer resource use is monitored and what information is collected. The purposes under which monitoring or collected information may be used, as well as access to users files may occur, is also described.

Reasonable measures are taken to minimize the impact monitoring and data collection have on a user's privacy. For example, collected data is kept secure and private. As another example, reading the contents of an email is a last resort, and is avoided whenever a less intrusive alternative is available.

The following activities, and aspects of those activities, may be monitored and recorded:

1. The time and nature of any access to a division or school network service or computer resource.
2. The sender, receiver, send/receive time, and content of any email sent from or received by a school or division account.
3. The creation, deletion, or modification time, as well as content of any data stored on school or division file-servers or services.
4. The time, nature, and content of any communication over division or school networks.

The above information may be used for the following purposes:

1. To assist in a legal investigation.
2. To comply with a Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act request.
3. To protect the safety of a student or staff member.
4. To enable administrative or teaching staff to access the information of students or staff for the purposes of teaching (ie. obtaining a student assignment stored on the file-server or obtaining an absent teacher's lesson plans).
5. To determine whether a user has acted in breach of the ECACS SRD #16 Information Technology Acceptable Use Agreement.
6. By the technical staff to provide and maintain operation of services and resources (ie. making regular backups of user data, removing viruses, etc.).

User's statement of understanding:

I have read and understand the above:

User name (please print)

User signature and date

Parent/guardian's statement of understanding (to be completed for all users below the age of 18):

I understand that my child's activities may be monitored and recorded for the purposes as described above:

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY (FOIP) ACT – FOIP – PARENT/GUARDIAN CONSENT FORM

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

On September 1, 1998, school boards in Alberta became subject to the FOIP Act. The Act's primary objectives are:

- To allow records under the custody or control of the school board to be readily accessible to the public;
- To protect the privacy of the individual by controlling the manner in which personal information is collected, used and disclosed.

Authority for Collection

The personal information collected by the East Central Alberta Catholic School Board on the student registration form is collected in accordance with the FOIP Act provisions; notably Sections 32, 33 and 37 pursuant to:

- The School Act including Sections 10, 44, 23 and its Student Record Regulation, A.R. 213/89, amended A.R. 175/93 and
- The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, Section 23.

Use of Information

- The information collected on the registration form is required in order to allow the Board, through its administrators to make such decisions as are necessary in order for it to fulfill its obligation to provide students with an education program that meets their needs, to provide a safe and secure environment, to protect the student's rights and to determine eligibility for particular programs and funding available both under the School Act and its regulations and through the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.
- The information will be made available to employees of East Central Alberta Catholic Schools, its authorized agents, and the Board, within the scope of their roles and responsibilities, to individuals working with the children or students in schools, and to Alberta Learning on a "need to know" basis.
- Please read the information contained in the Notice of Activities (below) which describes particular ways that personal information may be used. The information will be used for authorized programs and activities that are a normal part of school life.

Notice of Activities

In addition to the uses identified above, the personal information collected on the Student Registration Form is used by East Central Alberta Catholic Schools for authorized programs and activities that are a normal part of school life. The types of activities and their uses, which are listed below, form a vital part of a healthier functioning school and the participation of all students in these activities is an important part of their education.

Activities

1. Using a student's name, school, grade on student art work, written or other creative work at a school or school division site or school sponsored display in the community.
2. Using a student's name, school, grade, photo, and write-ups in student anthologies, newsletters, yearbook, or other school or school division publications, and local print and broadcast publications.
3. Taking of individual, class, team, or club photos for school purposes.
4. Using a student's name, address, birth date, photo, school, and grade for identification purposes. (i.e. library, activity, bus)

5. Using student names and academic information necessary for determining eligibility or suitability for provincial, federal or other types of awards or scholarships in the event the Board applies on a student's behalf.
6. Using a student's name, school, grade, and academic information for honor roles, graduation ceremonies, and other awards within the school or school division.
7. Using students' names, related contact information, and telephone numbers for absenteeism verification.
8. Using a student's name and birth date for birthday recognition.
9. Circulating personal information on a "need to know" basis for students who have severe, life threatening medical conditions or for students in emergency situations.
10. Taking photos/videos of classroom or other school activities by school division personnel for use within the school, the school division and school and Division web-sites. Please note that photos/videos of school activities (i.e. basketball games, concerts, plays) that are open to the general public may be taken and used for purposes within and outside the school. The school may not be able to restrict such activity at public events.

Security Measures

Pursuant to Section 36 of the FOIP Act the board must protect personal information by making reasonable security arrangements against such risks as unauthorized access, collection, use, disclosure or destruction.

The Division utilizes a computerized Student Information System to maintain student records; accordingly, the information provided is entered into the computer system at the school level. Access to the information in the computer is restricted to division/school authorized personnel.

I have read the "Notice of Activities" and hereby consent to the collection, use and disclosure of the information listed in items 1 to 10 on behalf of my child(ren)/ward(s) or on behalf of myself, and independent student (proof required) as defined in the School Act.

If you have any questions about the use or disclosure of the information collected, please contact your school principal or the FOIP Coordinator at 780.842.3992.
